EDUCATION	Ludwig-Maximilians University Munich Mathematics and Computer Science Teacher Program • Thesis Advisor: Prof. Sebastian Hensel • Subject: Word problem of groups	Munich, Germany 2019 - 2025 (expected)
	Osaka University Research year as an exchange student • Advisor: Prof. Eiko Kin • Subject: Train track splitting sequences of pseudo-Anosov homeos	Osaka, Japan 2023 - 2024
ACADEMIC TEXTS	1. Jean-Baptiste Bellynck, Eiko Kin. Agol cycles of pseudo-Anosov maps on the 2-punctured torus and 5-punctured sphere. Arxiv Link, 2024. 2. Jean-Baptiste Bellynck. Construction of a group with unsolvable word problem. (Bachelor thesis) pdf Link, 2024.
PROJECTS	Graphicayley Webapp Browser app that draws Cayley graphs from a given presentation. Try it out!	2023 - today
	Personal Wiki Personal database with 2k lecture and conference notes. Look inside!	2021 - today
TEACHING & WORK EXPERIENCE	Illustrations for Prof. Dr. Kotschick's most recent book Prof. Dr. Dieter Kotschick	Mar. 2025 - today
	Tutoring and grading exercises in Algebra and Number Theory Dr. Ralf Gerkmann	Oct. 2024 - Feb. 2025
	Software development Lösch & Partner GmbH	Mar. 2022 - Jun. 2023
	Tutoring in Software development practical Prof. Dr. Stefan Barth	Oct. 2021 - Feb. 2022
	High-school teaching practical training Oscar Maria Graf Gymnasium Neufahrn, Germany.	Sept. 2020 - Aug. 2021
REFERENCES	Contact the following people if you need a reference. Prof. Dr. Sebastian Hensel (hensel@math.lmu.de): If you need a detailed but general report or if you are interested in my academic development. Prof. Dr. Eiko Kin (kin.eiko.celas@osaka-u.ac.jp): If you are interested in how I collaborate with mentors on a common paper. Dr. Ralf Gerkmann (gerkmann@math.lmu.de): If you are interested in how I teach students. Prof. Dr. Jonathan Bowden (bowden@math.lmu.de): If you are interested in how I present and prepare for seminars. Prof. Dr. Dieter Kotschick (dieter@math.lmu.de): If you are interested in how professional work with me feels like.

INTERESTS

I like to do music, particularly to sing. During my high school years I played the violin and viola in the Regensburg Junior Classic Orchestra and trumpet in the Blaskapelle Donaustauf. I used to be part of the Romanistikchor Munich. Currently, I sing in the Munich University Choir.
